Why Train With Secure/ Higher Ed?

- Effective: Self-defense combined with situational awareness proven to reduce rape by 1/2 and attempted rape by 2/3.
- 100% research based: We rely on the latest research and if there isn't any, we do the experiment ourselves to determine what works and what fails.
- Entertaining: Nearly 100% of our participants of all ages and backgrounds say they had "fun" at the training.
- Objective: Pure science, no politics.

What the Experts Say

"Our fraternity has reviewed many sexual assault programs, and this program was far and away the best we have seen. It is the most relevant to young men, the most engaging, the most thoughtful, and the most effective in providing good men with the tools they need to be better."

Patrick McGowan, Executive Director, Acacia Fraternity

"The lessons S/HE shared with our kids are extremely important. Our Scouts really enjoyed the presentation and were very engaged with the material. They learned a lot and it will help them in life. "

Dr. Lauren Ortega, M.D., Girl Scout Troop Leader

"Your event was extremely well-organized, crisply run, and greatly appreciated by all attendees. S/HE's trainers were highly accomplished, competent, skilled, and professional."

Jermaine Boyer, Health & Wellness Director, WR YMCA

“The P³ training program is an evidence-based solution to sexual assault and dating violence.”

Jodi O'Brien, Fmr. Director of Women's Studies Programs, Seattle University

What The Media Say...

“The P³ program uses data from behavioral research mixed with physical tactics to train people, with the mission to leave them feeling empowered.”

*Becky Freemal
WFXR News*

“Great story!”

*Bill Wadell
